EXAM ONE REVIEW

SPRING 2019

Exam Style and Format: Your exam on is on March 1st at 9:30am.
We suggest you ARRIVE EARLY, those who are late will earn a zero.

50 questions; combination of matching, multiple choice and writing. The first five multiple choice questions on the exam will have projected images associated with them. Each question is worth two points. You will not need a scantron or a blue book for this exam. Just bring a pen or pencil. All potential images for the image pairing sections are located in your textbook and/or have been discussed in lecture.

Readings you will be responsible for:

Launching the Imagination by Mary Stewart: chapters one, two, three, five, and eight, as well as 13 Ways of Looking at a Blackbird (found on Blackboard). It would also be wise to review QUIZ ONE in preparation for this exam. Vocabulary is crucial, especial elements and principles of design.

Artist presentations given in lecture:

Broad facts that were clearly communicated from artist presentations given during lecture might appear on the exam. You are only responsible for ideas presented/discussed in the presentations that were given during lecture.

Videos shown in lecture:

"Everything is a Remix" video: <https://vimeo.com/139094998>

Additional content from lectures:

Review your vocabulary notes and key terms that we have been discussing in class. Lectures topics include: Appropriation/Sampling, Elements and Principals, Composition, Planing & Time Management, Identity & Habits, Writing Styles, Formal Analysis, Semiotics and Power, Problem Seeking, Interpretation, and Color.
